- Downhill Skiing & Snowboarding
- Cross Country Skiing & Snowshoeing
- Learn to Ride
- SKIHAWKS Racing Program
- One-Time Adaptive Recreation Lessons
- Equipment Fittings & Ability Assessments
- Mid-Winter & Spring Break Camps
- Yoga

Registration

Throughout this activity guide you will find a number of outdoor recreation opportunities Outdoors for All offers during fall and winter. To register for programs:

- Visit outdoorsforall.org
- Click 'Registration' under our 'Programs' tab
- Click 'Programs or Registration' under our 'Register' tab
- Choose the program you would like to participate in

Please note that for the skiing, snowshoeing, and snowboarding programs you will be asked to select your transportation, equipment rental and ticket/pass options.

 Prior to registering for an activity please read our Information & Policies section. If you have any questions or would prefer to register over the phone don't hesitate to call us at 206.838.6030 x200*

Registration Deadlines

The registration deadlines for January-February programs is December 2nd, 2016. Late registrations will be accepted (contingent upon available space) and placed on a wait list.

Early Registration is strongly encouraged to ensure availability of space as participants are assigned to instructors on a first come first serve basis. Despite this, registering before the deadline does NOT guarantee a place in our program. Participant enrollment is subject to adequate numbers of volunteers and their availability.

 A $50 deposit per activity must be submitted to secure a place in the program regardless of financial scholarship application status.*

Financial Aid

Outdoors for All aims to remove economic barriers preventing participants from accessing the outdoors. Thanks to grants and our generous donors, financial aid is available.

Financial aid is awarded based upon our funding and currently may range from 50-70% of total activity cost. We have a maximum award of $650.00 per participant per season, and may be applied to any of our activities. Financial Aid Applications can be found on our website under program registration.

 A $50 deposit per activity must be submitted to secure a place in the program regardless of financial aid application*

Disability Key

Throughout our brochure you will notice acronyms and abbreviations we use to identify disabilities. Please use the key below as your guide.

Autism:	On the autism spectrum
ID:	Intellectual Disability
Phys. Dis:	Physical Disability
Sit:	Participates in activities in a sitting position
Stand:	Participates in activities in a standing position
VI/HI:	Visual or Hearing Impairments

To find out if a program is cancelled or delayed please call the hotline: 206.838.4995

THE SUMMIT AT SNOQUALMIE PASS

SKIHAWKS RACING TEAM

The SKIHAWKS Racing Team inspires and involves people with developmental challenges in winter sports training and competitions to enhance their lives, build self-esteem, confidence and independence. SKIHAWKS was formed in 1982 and has grown from one athlete to over 80 Alpine, Nordic and Snowboard racers. Although this program is aimed primarily at providing a chance to enjoy a success in a sport and learn team pride and sportsmanship, it has many social benefits as well for its athletes. The SKIHAWKS Racing Team trains athletes with the support of Outdoors for All.

* Athletes must also register with Special Olympics and must be approved by SKIHAWKS Head Coach. To contact Head Coach, Sandee Brock, please e-mail brock8507@aol.com

ADDITIONAL WINTER PROGRAMS

Winter Equipment Demo & Fitting

Curious about adaptive equipment used during the winter season? Not sure you have the ability to ski or snowboard? This is a good time to see how it's done and find out what adaptations and special equipment may be needed before lessons start. Save valuable ski time; fittings done on the mountain may take one to two hours during lessons. Staff will give an overview of winter programs, demonstrate equipment and answer questions. The winter equipment demo & fitting are FREE, but participants are asked to register online to help Outdoors for All plan equipment & staffing.

Activity	Age	Location	Day & Time	Cost
Winter Equipment Demo & Fitting	5+	Magnuson Park	Wed. November 9 • 5pm-8pm	FREE

Ability Assessment

During an ability assessment participants work with one of our Adaptive Recreation Specialists to assess individual abilities and to determine which type of adaptive ski or cycle is the most appropriate on an individual basis. Once the team determines the right piece of equipment, our specialist will work with the participant to adapt the equipment to meet any individual needs using adaptive grips, pads and straps. After the assessment, participants receive an introductory lesson on equipment use. Family members and caregivers are welcome to attend Assessments to learn along with the participant. All dates and times are subject to availability. The standard amount of time for an assessment is 1.5 hours.

Fitting

Fittings are great for participants who have a good idea about what type of equipment they want to use, but are interested in learning about adaptations or assistive devices that are available (straps, grips, pads) and would like help getting started using them. The standard amount of for a fitting is 30-45 minutes.

Please contact our office to schedule an Ability Assessment and Equipment Fitting.

Activity	Age	Location	Day & Time	Cost
Ability Assessments	5+	Magnuson Park	by appointment	$115/hr
Fittings	5+	Magnuson Park	by appointment	$40/hr

Private Lessons

Private Lessons are available for individuals interested in trying a new winter sport or looking for coaching to get to the next level. Lessons are two hours, and they are available in downhill ski, snowboard, sit ski or Nordic. * Cost includes lesson ($90), equipment rental ($21.92 w/tax), and a lift ticket ($40).

To schedule a Private Lesson, go to the Outdoors for All registration page, and click on the Private Lessons header. You can choose from the options below. Sign up quick before spots run out! * Lessons are limited to the availability of our instructors and equipment. Outdoors for All makes every effort to schedule lessons that meet your preferred schedule.

INFORMATION & POLICIES

Confirmations: Upon receiving your registration forms and deposit, we will send an initial confirmation letter along with additional forms to review and/or complete.

IMPORTANT: Participant enrollment is subject to adequate number of volunteers being available; your participation may be cancelled if there are not enough volunteers. Final confirmations for Jan-Feb multi-week lessons will be sent 10-14 days prior to the start of the program. Final confirmations will include: instructor name, transportation location and times, verification of rental equipment and final billing amount, reflecting financial scholarships if applicable.

Participant Behavior Standards: Behavior issues can be a part of many disabilities. Outdoors for All makes every attempt to accommodate the aspects of individuals' disabilities. However, Outdoors for All staff and volunteers are not prepared to deal with significant behavioral issues. Please alert the office in advance regarding issues of concern so we can work together to ensure a positive and safe experience for all - participants, staff and volunteers. Unacceptable behavior includes: self-abuse, physical and verbal abuse of others, sexual contact, violent behavior, profanity and a consistent unwillingness to participate in activities. Noncompliance with behavior standards may result in the requirement of caregiver accompaniment during future activities or possible dismissal from activities.

Safety & Acceptance: Outdoors for All reserves the right to deny enrollment for medical, safety, or behavioral reasons. Participants who have had significant seizure activity in the past year, and will be riding a chair lift, must wear a harness. There is a 200 lb. weight consideration for all sit skiers.

Participant Personal Needs: Outdoors for All staff and volunteers are not prepared or trained to handle significant personal care needs (for example restroom needs). Individuals requiring extra support for restroom and other personal care needs must provide their own caregiver. Outdoors for All staff and volunteers will not dispense medication to participants. For questions, please contact our office.

Absences/Credit/Refund Policy: Once lessons have begun, partial credits/refunds will be given only for significant medical or extraordinary personal circumstances approved by the Program Director. If a participant cancels an activity more than 7 business days prior to the start of the activity, they will be eligible for a refund less the non-refundable deposit. We ask for more than 7 business days notice so there is an opportunity to offer that space to those on the wait list. If a participant cancels an activity and does not notify the office more than 7 business days prior to the activity, the participant is responsible for the full activity cost due, as well as any transportation fees, equipment rentals, tickets or passes due to the fact that we will be unable to fill that spot. If you are going to be absent, please call the Outdoors for All hotline (206-838-4995) and leave a message. Credits/refunds or make-up lessons are not given for participant absences. Outdoors for All closely monitors weather conditions and road closures, and occasionally cancels lessons. Outdoors for All has secured one makeup day at the end of the regular season series should inclement weather occur. This makeup lesson is on the student's regular day of the week, only one week later. Please keep this date penciled in, as refunds will not be given should the participant not be able to come to the makeup lesson.

Financial Scholarships: Outdoors for All's aim is to remove economic barriers that may prevent participants from accessing the outdoors. Financial Scholarships are available to participants based on availability of funds and on a first come, first served basis. Financial assistance may range from 50 - 70% of total activity cost, with a maximum award of $650.00 per participant per season. To be considered for financial scholarships participants must be registered for the program for which they are requesting financial aid. Please download a financial scholarship application from our website and contact us if you have questions. As with any registration, a $50 deposit per activity must be submitted in order to secure a place in the program regardless of financial scholarship application status.

Payment Policy: A non-refundable deposit is needed to secure a space in any Outdoors for All program. The non-refundable deposit fee varies based on the program cost. Full payment is due 7 business days prior to the start of the program, except for participants that have notified the office that they will be paying with DSHS funds or who have arranged a payment plan with the office. Participants may lose their spot in the program if full payment has not been received 7 business days prior to the start of the program.

Medication Policy: It is required that participants be independent in taking medications or bring a caregiver. All Outdoors for All participants and volunteers are required to safeguard their medications to prevent accidental or unintentional ingestion of medications.

Equipment Rentals: Outdoors for All equipment is available to rent for your lesson program and for daily rentals. If you choose to use your own equipment, please make note during registration. Helmets are also available at no cost for general safety use.

DSHS Respite Funding: Outdoors for All is a registered contractor with DSHS, and is therefore eligible to accept respite funds for payment of activities. Some activities, items and fees may not be eligible for DSHS funds. Please see Outdoors for All's FAQs about using respite funds for additional details.

Age: For most programs, participants must be 5 years old by the first activity date. Generally, young participants who are new to on-snow activities are better suited for half-day lessons.

SKIHAWKS Racing Team: The SKIHAWKS Racing Team is made up of downhill and cross-country participants with developmental disabilities who compete in Special Olympics. In order to participate, individuals must be approved by the SKIHAWKS Head Coach and register additionally with the Special Olympics. Transportation assignments on the SKIHAWKS bus are first come, first served.

Helmet Policy: Outdoors for All's helmet policy requires participants, volunteers, and any participating family and caregivers to wear helmets when actively participating in downhill skiing, downhill snowboarding, and any other activity when directed by Outdoors for All staff and released parties. The selection and use of an appropriate helmet is the sole responsibility of the user. Outdoors for All will not be liable for any injury or damages resulting from failure to use a helmet or incorrect use or selection of a helmet. WARNING: Outdoor activities are inherently dangerous and use of a helmet is no guarantee of safety and the activities requiring the use of a helmet may expose the participant to forces that exceed the limits of protection provided by a helmet.

Instruction: Outdoors for All's lessons are typically taught with a low participant to instructor ratio (1:1 to 3:1). Each individual's needs are considered in lesson planning and instructor ratio.

Summit Season Passes: Participants who purchase a Summit Season Pass thru Outdoors for All must fill out an online application for their pass on the Summit website by December 15, 2015. Directions for obtaining the pass will be included on participants Outdoors for All payment receipt. Participants who do not fill out the application by December 15, 2015 will be charged a $25 late fee.

Transportation: Participants registered for Outdoors for All transportation must be dropped off at the same bus/van stop at which they were picked up. Contact Outdoors for All to make wheelchair accessible accommodations. There is no cost for required caregivers. Please note if a caregiver will be attending during registration so we can reserve space for them. When registering, choose the transportation pick-up location that meets your needs. Transportation pickup / drop-off locations are based on popular demand. We can not guarantee the specific location you choose will be available. Limited space is available on each van/bus. Participants who register early increase their chances of receiving their transportation preferences. Contact the office for questions about one day transportation needs.
