"I CAN DO THIS!", Jaretta's Inspiring Rock Climbing Testimonial

"Even my fingers are sore today! I had so much fun yesterday at my first rock-climbing lesson. It was one of the most physically difficult things that I have ever done AND a pivotal moment in my life!

On my second climb attempt, I became physically exhausted and mentally frustrated. My volunteer coaches, Sarah and Kevin, were incredible and they kept encouraging me. As we took a short break from that attempt, Sarah gave me the option of doing an easier 'confidence booster' climb or a 'challenge climb'.

At first, I was going to do the "confidence booster" but decided on the "challenge climb" and I was able to push myself so hard and actually made it to the top!! It was also a moment of realization that I CAN DO THIS!! After all my injuries and illnesses, I had resigned myself to the idea that there were all these things that I was never going to be able to do again. But last night, I proved myself WRONG! Yes, I have limitations and yes, I will continue to have setbacks and rough times - but it doesn't have to stop me from doing things I want to do OR at least I can TRY!!

That climb reignited a fire in me. I am DETERMINED to take back control of my life!! Thanks so much to the Wounded Warrior Project, Outdoors For All, and my two incredible volunteer coaches Sarah and Kevin for helping me to live again!! I can't wait for next Wednesday!!"

If you would like to get involved with our rock climbing program as a participant or volunteer please visit the program page on our website for more information.
