

Rock Climbing Volunteer

Summary: Outdoors for All's rock climbing program offers participants a safe, fun atmosphere to learn and practice safe climbing techniques. Each rock climbing event is different. The focus of some may be to have a safe and fun rock climbing experience and others may also work to further advance a participant's rock climbing skills. Climbing activities will include indoor and outdoor top roped climbing as well as bouldering at indoor climbing gyms. We are not presently teaching participants proficiency in anchors, equipment set-up, knot tying, or belaying. If a participant is interested, a qualified staff or lead volunteer can teach them knot tying and belaying in a mock set up.

Responsible to: Outdoors for All staff

Responsibilities:

1. Engage and supervise participants both on and off the climbing wall. Ensure participants are wearing properly fitted helmets and harnesses.
2. If belaying, double check participants are properly tied into the rope, and your belay device, carabiners, and ropes are properly set.
3. Provide a safe, fun, positive, helpful learning experience for Outdoors for All participants.
4. Help maintain the integrity of the equipment.
5. Assist Outdoors for All with group management.
6. Give helpful instruction to improve climbing technique.
7. Listen and follow staff instructions

Other Expectations:
